

Kentucky Fried Sister:

Convent of the Thoroughly Bred and Breaded

Sister Tea Summary

On the 11th of December 2016 seven inquisitive and ambitious genderfolk convened in Lexington. Wearing smiles and several in face we entered the doors of a local upscale victorian tearoom to converse about the aspirations of creating Kentucky's second sister house. Tea, Coffee, and cakes were served and to the horror and amazement of some of the other patrons we began an organic dialogue. Conversation was broad and a few of the topics were of "The Sistory" of the SPI, the benefits of another house in Kentucky, and our own personal stories and dreams for this house. Most importantly we discussed the stress/joy undertaking this path would create. An agreement was formed, to go forward, to meet the challenge head on, and to bring unfaltering love and advocacy to a community that desperately needs it.

Those in attendance were: Mimi Pickme, Val Garity, Scott, Peeping Thom, Jesse, Korriandher Spice, Adam, and Ken Tagious.
